Heavy rainfall & floods

- Unusually Chennai city and other parts of Tamilnadu in India is facing a historical rainfall.
- The sudden heavy downpour has completely paralyzed entire state affecting millions of people, particularly the poor and the children living in the low lying areas.
- People started losing hope of seeing a day without rain that has increased their suffering.
- Lack of coordinated effort, unpreparedness, indiscriminate development along the water ways has killed many people, particularly the children.

Evacuation

- Airport, Railways, Road transport has come to halt. And each locality has become an Island.
- The essential supplies like electricity, water, food, etc is lacking and inaccessible.
- Our concern generally is to help people around for safe evacuation and supply of essentials.
- As a first step, we have accommodated 20 people and 20 people in the ground floor.
- As a immediate measure we have started distributing food packets and clothes.

Nature of help required
